Dear [REDACTED]

Notification of grant of a Bridging visa

A bridging visa has been granted on 05 June 2025 to each of the applicants listed in the attached bridging visa grant notice(s), which contain important information about your visa.

Keep a copy of this letter and the bridging visa grant notice for future reference.

Changes to your circumstances

Up until the time a decision is made on your Partner (Provisional) visa application, you are required to tell us about any changes to your circumstances that may affect any answer to a question in your application form including your name, passport, contact details, address or family members as soon as possible. You are required to do this in writing and can use Form 1022 Notification of changes in circumstances (Section 104 of the Migration Act 1958), which is available at immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/departmental-forms/pdf-forms

Failure to notify the department of your new circumstances can have serious consequences and even if the visa you have applied for is granted, it may later be cancelled.

Yours sincerely

About your bridging visa

If your Partner (Provisional) (subclass 309) visa is refused this bridging visa allows you to remain lawfully in Australia until 35 calendar days after a decision is made on your application.

If your Partner (Provisional) (subclass 309) visa application is refused and you apply for a merits review of that decision within the required timeframe, this bridging visa will allow you to remain in Australia until 35 calendar days after the decision by the merits review tribunal.

If the merits review tribunal remits your application to the Department for reconsideration, this bridging visa will allow you to remain lawfully in Australia until 35 calendar days after a decision is made on your Partner (Provisional) (subclass 309) visa application.

If you withdraw your Partner (Provisional) (subclass 309) visa application or your merits review application, this bridging visa will allow you to remain lawfully in Australia until 35 calendar days after that withdrawal.

If you hold any substantive visa, and that substantive visa is cancelled, you should contact the Department immediately. Your bridging visa may have ceased and no longer allow you to remain lawfully in Australia.

More information about bridging visas is available on our website www.homeaffairs.gov.au

Travel overseas

This bridging visa lets you temporarily stay in Australia. It will end when you leave Australia. If you travel outside Australia, you will need a visa to return to Australia.

When your Bridging visa (class WA) is in effect, you will have full permission to work.

Checking your visa details

You can check and email your visa details and conditions at any time using the Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) system. To access VEVO, you can use the QR Code provided above or more information is available on our website immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/already-have-a-visa/check-visa-details-and-conditions

You will need to enter the following information:

- Your Visa grant number or Transaction reference number
- Your passport or ImmiCard information.

You can also check and email your visa details through the myVEVO mobile app.
