

Dear [REDACTED]

We have issued you a Bridging B visa while your Partner (Provisional) (subclass 309) application is being processed.

Application status
New Partner (Provisional) (subclass 309) application:	Received
Current Bridging B visa:	Active
Bridging B visa:	Not active

When will my Bridging visa become active?

This Bridging B visa will only become active if your current visa ends before your new application has been finalised. This Bridging visa allows you to stay lawfully in Australia while your Partner (Provisional) (subclass 309) application is being processed.

Planning to travel?

This Bridging visa allows you to travel outside Australia until 05 March 2026.

When does my Bridging visa end?

If your application is granted, your Bridging visa will end and your new visa will become active.

If your application is invalid, refused, withdrawn or has an outcome from a merits review decision, your Bridging visa will end after a specified period of time. To understand more about when a bridging visa ends, refer to www.homeaffairs.gov.au/bridging-visas
